

Moving-in check

You should bear these things in mind when moving in:

Power supply

To ensure you quickly feel at home in your new apartment, please do not forget to apply for the power supply from your local provider before you move in.

Register your change of address

Apply for a change of address registration for your new place of residence at the relevant residents' registration office (Einwohnermeldeamt) as soon as possible.

Insurance

If you take out household contents or liability insurance, your property is covered in the event of damage.

New address

Notify insurance companies, banks, suppliers, etc. of your new address.

Motor vehicles

Register your car at the relevant vehicle registration office.

Redirection order

If necessary, submit a redirection order so that your post can reach you in your new apartment.
